

Recommended Order to Complete E-Learning Modules

The TECS and TECS Elite program allows enrolled students to take the Maintenance level e-learning modules.

Maintenance Level – recommended order to take e-learning
TEC100A	Introduction to Toyota
TEC100B	Using TIS
TEC100C	General Service
TEC100E	GTS+ Level 1
TCC104A	Tire and Wheel Service
TEC100F	Pre-Delivery Service (PDS)
TCC105A	Toyota Brake Maintenance
SC19A	Recall & SSCs
TEX023A	AWR Label
TDLR-61	Fix it Right the First Time
TFTO-01	Floor Mat
TEC109A	EPV Maintenance
Body – recommended order to take e-learning
PB300	Welding Techniques for Collision Repair Pre-Work
BEC020	Non-Structural Body Repair
B903	Toyota Unusual Interior Noise Concerns
PB503	Steering and Suspension Analysis & Repair Pre-Work
PB460	Structural Body Repair Techniques Pre-Work
TEB019A	2020 Toyota Supra Collision Repair Preview
NEC022	2022 Tundra Collision Repair Module
MEC222	Electrified Powertrain Vehicle General Service for Collision
NEC122	2023 bZ4X Collision Repair Module
PB301A	Aluminum Body Panel Repair
MEC002	Using TIS for Collision Repair
Paint – recommended order to take e-learning
PB101	Pre-Work Paint Finish Repair
PB200	Color Matching for Painters Pre-Work
PB250	Advanced Painting Techniques Pre-Work

Frequently Asked Questions Concerning E-Learning Modules

Question: Do I have to complete E-Learning in a specific order?

Answer: We encourage sticking to the recommended order in this table to take your e-learning modules to avoid any issue with some courses requiring a prerequisite course.

Question: I did not pass my assessment, what now?

Answer: That is okay! Wait 1 or 2 days before trying to take the assessment again.

Question: My passing score has not been recorded, what should I do?

Answer: If you did not complete the assessment within the 90-minute timeframe, please retake the assessment.

1. If you completed the assessment within the 90-minute timeframe, take a full-screen capture of your passing assessment with the grade. Save it. It usually takes 3 or 4 days for a passing score to be recorded. Check again at a later time.
2. If it has been more than 72 hours since taking your assessment and the system is still not showing your passing grade, ask your instructor for help. Send your instructor the screen capture. It will be very helpful for your instructor to provide it to the TECS support team when asking for assistance.